It can be seen that Agnes Lynn & John Alexander were second cousins. Their children would be doubly related to the children of their siblings i.e., they would share the same great-great-grandparents.

Ardis is still trying to confirm the parents of Henry and John.